

Entry Form Prologue Marathon 13th August 2011

Powered by Mercedes-Benz Vito Sport

GORE BIKE WEAR™ Prologue Marathon:

Big news for 2011 – introducing the GORE BIKE WEAR™ Prologue Marathon powered by Mercedes-Benz Vito Sport. Taking place on 13th August at 11am, riders can enjoy an approx. 40km marathon ride with an optional special stage at the end where riders will get the chance to test their ‘racing skills’. It is open to all TransWales riders (but not compulsory) who want to limber up and get their legs in shape for the big challenge ahead. It is also open to non-TransWales riders who would like a taster of a typical unique day’s riding in the TransWales. The entry fee for the Prologue Marathon is £ 25 per rider.

This event is not mandatory part of the GORE BIKE WEAR™ TransWales powered by Mercedes-Benz Vito Sport and the following applies:

- numbers are limited, so get your entry in quick
- its non-competitive
- the special stage will be manually timed
- full use of free camping, event village facilities & feed stations
- entrants must register before 10.30am on 13th August ready for 11.00am start
- the event is based at Penmaenau Farm in Builth Wells, Wales (also start and finish location of the GORE BIKE WEAR™ TransWales)
- start and finish of the marathon is Penmaenau Farm in Builth Wells
